

MIAMI UNIVERSITY
OXFORD, OHIO

ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT FOR INSTITUTIONAL DIVERSITY

Miami University, nationally recognized as one of the most outstanding public undergraduate institutions, seeks a creative, entrepreneurial, dynamic leader to become its Associate Vice President for Institutional Diversity. This person will advance and sustain an environment that values difference and inclusiveness for all members of the University community and will promote diversity as an essential element in fulfilling the University's mission of teaching, scholarship and community engagement. The Associate Vice President for Institutional Diversity will report directly to the President, participate fully within the senior leadership of the University, and will lead the efforts of the University community in the development and implementation of a vision and plans for advancing diversity.

The ideal candidate will be a proactive and strategic advocate, partner, and leader who will develop constructive relationships with faculty, administration, students, alumni and other University stakeholders. S/he will possess strategic diversity experience, preferably in a higher education environment; a proven track record of successfully creating diversity programs; along with the energy, enthusiasm, drive and engaging personality necessary to achieve ambitious University goals.

To ensure full consideration, applications should be received by March 18, 2007. The search will remain open until the position is filled. The starting date is negotiable, with the expectation that the new Associate Vice President will take office by July 1, 2007.

All inquiries, nominations/referrals, and resumes with cover letters, should be sent in confidence to: Donna Cramer, Senior Associate, Isaacson Miller, 334 Boylston Street, Suite 500, Boston, MA 02116, Telephone; 617-262-6500; E-Mail: dcramer@imsearch.com