

Associate Director for Multicultural Programs

The University of Akron

A publicly assisted metropolitan institution, strives to attract and retain a higher quality and more diverse student body; as well as develop enlightened members of society. This position reports to the Office of Multicultural Development which is a unit within the Associate Vice President for Inclusion and Equity.

The responsibilities of this position include: Assisting the Office of Multicultural Development with improving access, retention and graduation rates of all underrepresented/underserved baccalaureate students. To plan and implement social cultural programming including but not limited to MLK Day initiatives, Black History Month, Hispanic Heritage Month, etc. Additionally, the Associate Director will advise students, assist the Director in securing internal and external sponsors to support programming that will enhance the campus and surrounding community. Candidate will serve as a liaison to the Pan African Center for Community Studies in support of the Dr. Shirla R. McClain Gallery of Akron's Black History and Culture and other community initiatives. Requirements for this position include a Master's degree in Student Personnel Administration, Higher Education or related fields; demonstrated experience in higher education working with students of color, demonstrated experience planning and coordinating programs and initiatives and advising students. Four to six years experience working with diverse student populations required. Bilingual skills (Spanish) highly preferred.

Send letter of interest, resume and contact information for at least three professional references to:

Search Committee Chair

The University of Akron

Akron, Ohio 44325-1804

omd@uakron.edu

Position will remain open until filled. The University of Akron is committed to a policy of equal employment opportunity and to the principles of affirmative action in accordance with state and federal laws.

