

Submission Information: Accepting manuscripts on rolling basis

The Journal Committed to Social Change on Race and Ethnicity (JCSCORE) invites you to submit your work. We are now accepting manuscript on rolling basis. The editorial board of JCSCORE is seeking critical scholarship that transcends disciplinary boundaries including research articles and monographs, as well as creative papers that pursue innovative formats of scholarly work and approaches including narrative, poetry, and digital media. Manuscripts submitted to JCSCORE should contribute innovative research and ideas that increase awareness research and practice on race and ethnicity in higher education.

The Journal Committed to Social Change on Race and Ethnicity (JCSCORE) is an interdisciplinary, peer-reviewed journal published by the National Conference on Race and Ethnicity (NCORE). As an NCORE publication, JCSCORE promotes an exchange of ideas that can transform lives, enhance learning, and improve human relations in higher education. The editors of JCSCORE welcome high-quality, original, and innovative manuscripts that address the interconnections of race, ethnicity, and sovereignty in higher education policy, practice, and theory.

JCSCORE is looking for manuscripts with research in the following content areas: qualitative and quantitative research, assessment and evaluation, pedagogies, critical theory, policy, theory to praxis, ethnic studies, situational efforts at transformation, social identities, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer (LGBTQ), intergroup dialogue and facilitation, environment, sustainability and environmental justice, student leadership, organizing and coalition building, science, technology, engineering and math (STEM), body arts, visual arts and performing arts, collegiate athletics, health sciences, and innovative ideas for research in race and ethnicity, in higher education.

Specific Guidelines
